Magdalen Bowyer

Transpersonal Psychotherapist & Spiritual Life Coach
Vancouver, British Columbia – Canada

Magdalen believes the value for a woman to be able to talk to her therapist from the privacy of her own home after tucking the children in bed or during her lunch break while at the office or after her weekend yoga class while resting on the beach or between scenes from the movie set or while travelling any place on the planet is priceless. Women are makers of life. Her mission is to be the loving space through which women can elevate themselves to do the work their life demands they do. It is a High Calling. And a practical service.

As a Master Storyteller who writes and counsels, Magdalen understands that we are the stories we tell to ourselves and to each other about who we are and why we are here. And it is time for new stories! She is called to help women know and live their real power and freedom. And as an author, she is committed to telling the deep stories to transform the mythic structure of humanity.

Magdalen is available for guest speaking engagements including radio, print, television, podcast interviews, and telesummits.

QUICK BIOGRAPHY

Magdalen Bowyer was born and raised in Saskatchewan, and now makes home on the west coast of Canada. Her first book, "Three Marriages: lies I've lived by," is a memoir about the female search for love - a search inspired by the notion that opening a deeply personal space in one's life creates a place through which universal understanding may emerge. Her recently published book, "Love Is," dares to reveal the answer to the age-old question, "What is this thing called love?" You can find her at www.magdalen.ca

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Magdalen Bowyer is an author and counsellor currently residing in Vancouver, British Columbia. Her love of writing always had her believe she would tell stories and make books. What she didn't foresee was the privilege bestowed upon her as a counsellor to women who entrust her with the intimate stories of their lives. Through a lifetime of learning to love and trust herself, she is devoted to empowering women to remember who they really are — wisdom, power, and love in action. As women awaken to co-create intimate relationship with the Divine Feminine, they un-earth the truth that all power is Divine, flows from within and wants to be mobilized in our lives. Personal empowerment is the natural result. Magdalen has authored two books: "Three Marriages" and "Love Is." And she is presently working on her next book.
